RE: Rochester Main Street Announces 2012 Directors & Officers

Rochester Main Street Program Announces 2012 Directors & Officers

The Rochester Main Street Program is pleased to announce the election of the Board of Director's and Officers for 2012.

New President of the Board of Directors is Heather Tacconi of Stephen Brown Law Offices while Vice President/President elect is David Meulenbroek from Studley's Flower Gardens. Jennifer Stimac of the Jenny-Wren Gallery will serve as Secretary and Jennifer Beloin-Gagne of Beloin Construction is the Treasurer. Immediate Past President is Michael Deegan of Distinctive Forest Creations. All new Officers, Directors, and Committee Chairs take up their positions as of January 1, 2012.

Newly elected Board Members serving three year terms are Officer Tracy Hayes, Rochester Police Department and Christine Colonna from Tresses Hair Salon. These newly elected Directors will join current directors: Jeffrey Bisson of Happy Pappy's Country Store, Timothy Cremmen of MetroCast, Jennifer Granger of Service Credit Union, Laura Ring of The Greater Rochester Chamber of Commerce and Donnita Rockwell from Spaulding Composites.

Serving as Chairs of the Four Points Committees are: Outreach-Vickie Routhier of Laconia Savings Bank, Design-David Meulenbroek of Studley's Flower Gardens, PR/Events-Jeffrey Bisson of Happy Pappy's Country Store and Economic Restructuring-Molly Meulenbroek of Studley's Flower Gardens. Rochester Main Street would like to thank outgoing Directors Paul Callaghan of Rochester Police Department and Suzanne Boutin of St. Elizabeth Seton School for their dedication and leadership. Special appreciation is also extended to Michael Deegan of Distinctive Forest Creations for his leadership and work over the past year as President of the Board of Directors. The first official event of the new Board will be the Annual Meeting on Wednesday, February 1 at the Governor's Inn from 5:30-7:30 pm.
